Silent Prayer for Transformation (a moment to pause, reflect, and renew)

Words of Grace

Your grace means we're free to start again, O God. May this very moment, pervaded by your presence, be a moment of renewal. You are here, now with us, and all is well. Amen.

Centering in the Spirit from Mechthild of Magdenburgh (1207-1294 AD)

Dave Litrico

O burning Mountain,
O chosen Sun,
 O perfect Moon,
 O fathomless Well,
O unattainable Height,
O Clearness beyond measure,
 O Wisdom without end,
 O Compassion without limit,
O Strength beyond resistance,
O Crown beyond all majesty:
 the humble sing your praise.

Call to Prayer

Hear Us O Lord

Don Besig and Nancy Price

Hear us, O Lord, as we come now in prayer, shar - ing our joys, our trou-bles, and our cares.
Help us, O Lord, to be o - pen to your word, and teach us to put our trust in you.

Prayers of the People and the Prayer of Jesus

Our Father/Mother/Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts/sins/trespases,
as we forgive our debtors/those who sin/trespass against us.
And help us yield not to/Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

*Prayer of Dedication (in unison)

Laurel Thurman

God of Justice and Mercy, you do not ask for thousands of offerings or rivers of oil, only that we live with love, humility, and a hunger for what is right. Accept these gifts we bring—not as bargaining chips, but as signs of our desire to follow you. Use them and us to pour out kindness where the world is aching, to walk alongside the weary, and to bring your healing presence into troubled places. May our giving be our “yes” to your call, our response to your grace, and our witness to your hope. Amen.

Pastoral Introduction

Silent Remembrance (a time to in our own way remember all that Christ is to us)

With reverence and faith and love, stay near, O God. Amen.

Communion Litany

“The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body broken for you”

(distribute bread)

One: O God, just as this broken loaf was scattered over the hill as grain, and, having been gathered together, became one; in like fashion, may your church be gathered together from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

All: Because yours is the glory and the power through Jesus Christ forever.

The Body of Christ, the Bread of Life...

In remembrance of our Lord Jesus, Our Way, Truth, and Life

(partake)

“In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant effected by my lifeblood poured out for you.”

(distribute juice)

One: O God, just as this juice comes from a gathering of grapes grown on a vine rooted deep, in like fashion, may we be rooted in the Vine that is Christ, and bear good fruit together as we look to your kingdom.

All: Because yours is the glory and the power through Jesus Christ forever.

The Lifeblood of the New Covenant, the Cup of Wholeness...
In remembrance of our Lord Jesus, Our Way, Truth, and Life

(partake)

Closing Hymn

O for a World

Passing the Peace

The peace of our Lord, Jesus Christ, is with you always.

And also with you.

Let us share with one another a sign of that peace.

Postlude

About Communion at First Church

At the Last Supper, Jesus turned no one away and imposed no restrictions on receiving the bread and the cup. Neither do we here at the First Church of Christ in Mansfield. Christ's table is open at all, and we extend an extravagant welcome to you to join us. The communion elements will be brought to the pews by servers. Plates containing pieces of bread will be distributed first, followed by trays containing individual cups of grape juice. Each time, worshipers are asked to hold the elements until all have been served and an invitation to partake is spoken from the communion table. For those who wish to know, the cup contains non-alcoholic grape juice and the bread is gluten-free.

And about those little plastic cups...

Our shift from receiving Communion by intinction from a common cup to the tradition of passing trays of bread and juice from pew to pew has been made from our concern for health (risk of germ transmission) as well as our hope that it creates a more unified, communal experience whereby worshippers partake of the elements at the same time. However, there have been questions about the use of disposable cups in a green church. The Ministry of Spiritual Life has discussed this and plans to return to the use of our silver Communion-ware at Easter. In the meantime, we will use up the large supply of plastic cups that were purchased during the pandemic.

Our Greeters this morning are Julie Menard and Steve Lane.

Our Cantor is Laurel Thurman.

Communion Servers are Steve Lane, Julie Menard, David Darnell, and Gary Cote.

Our Children's Worship Circle hosts Coffee Hour.
